GERMAN DAY AT EXPOSITION

ALL PARTS OF COUNTRY REPRESENTED

Commemorate Landing of First Germans on American Soil, Oct. 6, 1693—Carl Schurz and Minister Sternburg Present.

St. Louis, Oct. 6.—Displaying white ribbons bearing the inscription "Do your duty to the old country and new," Germans from all parts of the United States assembled on the world's fair grounds to day to celebrate German day in commemoration of the landing of the first Germans on American soil Oct. 6, 1693.

In his speech at the German day celebration to day Carl Schurz said the German-Americans are a hyphen between Germany and America and that they are the embodiment of international peace and friendship between the two nations. "No international friendship could be more natural than that between this republic and the German empire," he said. "They are not only tied together by bonds of kinship and of common German spirit, but also by the complete absence of great interests that might divide them." He ridiculed the story of possibility of war at future time between Germany and the United States and declared the United States the very last country in the world with which Germans would have war. "With confidence in the future," he said in conclusion, "we join here in the great watch word, international peace and friendship for all time."

The celebration ended to night by a banquet. Dr. Theodore Lewak, imperial commissioner general from Germany, was the host of the occasion, ably assisted by Dr. P. C. Riehoff, German consul in St. Louis. Many distinguished German guests participated in the exercises of the day.

President Francis of the exposition, and Mayor Wells delivered addresses of welcome. Francis told of the cordiality with which Emperor William received him when he visited Germany to interest his majesty in the exposition.

Ambassador Sternburg was the next speaker and told of the pride he felt in being present at the representative of the Kaiser at this celebration. He closed his address by reading a cablegram received from the Kaiser.

During the day there was an exhibition by Turner societies.

After the exercises Sternburg held an informal reception. To night a kommerciell dinner was given.

Chicago, Oct. 6.—Chicago to the number of 30,000. It is estimated will be in attendance at the celebration of Chicago day at the St. Louis exposition Saturday. Great crowds of them, including the Chicago Press club, board of trade, Union League club, Chicago Athletic association, city officials and other clubs and societies and individuals left over various roads during the day.

PEACE CONGRESS.

Boston, Oct. 6.—At to day's session of the international peace congress a resolution was adopted commending the countries who have signed permanent and obligatory treaties since its last session and expressing hope that their example would be quickly followed by other powers. The congress especially rejoices at the statement recently made by President Roosevelt that the United States government is now taking steps to secure arbitration treaties with all other governments which are willing to enter into them.

The universal reduction of armaments resolutions, which express the opinion the first lack of each conference should be to elaborate and apply a definite, plan simultaneous arrest and subsequent reduction of armaments, were unanimously adopted.

Gen. Nelson A. Miles was the principal speaker. During his address Miles said: "It must be apparent to all thoughtful patriotic men that the intelligent world will not long endure the burden of the great standing armies and enormous expenditures which are now being maintained. The question as to what the millions would do if it were not for the military service is answered by the fact that they would become producers instead of consumers. In the promotion of peace, the industries of our people have won a place in the world's confidence and respect, in which we at hold just pride. In these splendid activities there is no sound of warring cannon and dying men."

ANOTHER BATTLESHIP

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 6.—Everything is in readiness for launching the battleship Nebraska to morrow. Governor Miley and party reached Seattle to day from Nebraska. Among government vessels in port to morrow will be the United States monitor Wyoming.

COOK WITHDRAWS

Stalwart Candidate for Governor of Wisconsin Declines to Make Race.

Milwaukee, Oct. 6.—Samuel A. Cook has withdrawn from the Republican state ticket and is succeeded by former Governor Schofield. The selection of Schofield will be ratified by the state central committee to morrow.

STATEMENTS MADE.
The former candidate for governor, Samuel A. Cook, issued a lengthy statement to night, giving his reasons for withdrawing from the stalwart ticket. The gist of his statement is a review of his past utterances that he would withdraw unless the decision of the supreme court was in his favor.

Former Governor Scofield, who has been selected to fill the vacancy made by Cook, made a statement in which he expressed confidence in being elected and continued:

"I have faith in the judgment and in the desire for fair play of the Republicans in Wisconsin and am certain they will rebuke the high handed methods by which La Follette attempted to steal the party convention. I represent in this contest the Republican party of the state and my nomination comes through the regular party channels. The only tribunal that has passed upon the merits of the controversy now in progress in the party in Wisconsin is the national Republican convention, which declared, after a most careful investigation of the subject, that the opera house convention was the regular one. I am honored by being asked to carry the banner for that convention."

"The regular Republicans, whose candidate I am, are unanimous and enthusiastic in their support of the national Republican ticket and will see to it that President Roosevelt receives in this state the hearty support to which his splendid record entitles him."

"I can briefly state my position. I am heartily in accord with the platform adopted by the convention in the Fuller opera house at Madison in May last."

POLITICAL.

SENATOR FAIRBANKS.

Ogden, Utah, Oct. 6.—Senator Fairbanks arrived in Ogden late this afternoon and spoke in the Grand opera house here to night to a packed house. He devoted a large portion of his address to foreign trade. The first stop of the day was made at Elko, Nev. No speeches were made between that place and Ogden. Fairbanks was rejoined here by Senator Dooliver. The Iowa senator spoke at the meeting to night. Congressman W. I. Smith of Iowa joined Fairbanks here with expectation of continuing with him until after the senator concludes his Iowa campaign next week.

MASSACHUSETTS DEMOCRATS.
Boston, Oct. 6.—The Democratic state convention will be one of the most important held in many years. William L. Douglas, of Brockton, will be nominated for governor.

New York, Oct. 6.—George Foster Peabody, treasurer of the Democratic national committee, to day issued an appeal for contributions for the campaign fund.

AT LOUISVILLE.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 6.—Congressman John Sharp Williams opened the campaign in Louisville for the Democrats to night. His speech was largely pitched in a key of intense sarcasm, dealing mainly with the record of Roosevelt and the administration and views of the president as set forth in the latter's letter of acceptance.

Milwaukee, Oct. 6.—Stalwarts of Wisconsin have adopted the name "National Republican" and their ticket will appear on the official ballot under this name. The state central committee of this faction of the Republican party will meet in Milwaukee Friday to complete plans for the campaign.

Philippines will Hold a Mass Meeting in Furtherance of Independence

Flery orators will speak, the principal ones being Sandoz, former member of Aguinaldo's cabinet, and who in 1899 signed the order for the massacre of all foreigners in Manila. The government will not interfere.

DIVORCE AND RE-MARRIAGE

QUESTION UP TO THE EPIS- COPALIANS.

House of Deputies in Session at Boston Consider Resolutions
to Regulate the Matter—Other Topics.

Boston, Oct. 6.—When the house of deputies of the Episcopal church assembled to day there was a large attendance of visitors in anticipation of the presence of Archbishop Canterbury, who yesterday announced he would deliver a message to the American church.

The archbishop dwelt at length upon the necessity of safeguarding the people of America and England against the grave peril of already certain decadence in the definite life of the ordinary home.

The triennial conference of the women's auxiliary to the board of missions formally opened to day and was largely attended. The house of bishops continued in session behind closed doors.

At the session of the house of delegates several resolutions to make more stringent the canon on remarriage of divorced persons were presented. One resolution was aimed to prohibit the remarriage of a divorced person during the life of the former partner. The whole question will come up later.

After reporting against a change of name of the church at this time, the committee appointed at the last convention was discharged. A member of the committee, Rev. B. Talbot Rogers, of Portland, Me., attempted to have the resolution drawn up by his minority members of the committee, which dropped the words "Protestant Episcopal" from the title page of the prayer book, placed on the calendar, but it was referred to the committee on prayer book and will be discussed later.

To night Bishop Lawrence gave a reception to the house of bishops at his residence, and a conference of diocesan secretaries and assistants was held at the Episcopal headquarters.

The report of the committee on conformity in regard to marriage and divorce was submitted to the convention to day. The report says the results so far attained are contained in the following:

"Resolved, That in recognition of the unity which should exist between the Christian churches, it is desirable and would tend to increase the spirit of Christian unity for each church represented in the conference to advise, and if ecclesiastical authority will allow, to enjoin its ministers to refuse to unite in marriage any person or persons whose marriage such ministers have good reason to believe is forbidden by the laws of the church in which either party seeking to marry holds membership."

A committee of conference in reference to the question of state and national legislation made a report of which the closing paragraph is:

"That it is possible to produce harmony in place of prevailing want of uniformity may be seriously doubted. It would require not only uniform legislation at a particular period, but that the statutes of several states upon the subject of divorce and remarriage should remain unchanged, or should only be changed by common consent, so that the original uniformity should continue to prevail. What if any success can attend an effort in this direction will depend materially upon the possibility that the churches represented in the conference shall agree upon a uniform canon to apply to their church members and clergy. Whether this is possible the conference cannot best determine, but the committee easily reached the conclusion that it is impossible, the task of endeavoring to bring about legislative harmony will certainly be hopeless. The states are not likely to cooperate in producing uniform laws more stringent than the existing laws of the majority of the several states."

And their report having been considered in the conference, it was resolved:

"That the report of the committee on national and state legislation be recommended to the committee for further inquiry and for suggestions to best methods of securing such uniformity of law and usages among churches as may tend to serve legislative harmony."

The house of deputies voted to continue the commission in office.

WAR NEWS

Show No Movements or Events of Importance in the Far East.

The significance of the Mukden dispatch noting an unusual activity in that place is the subject of much speculation in St. Petersburg. The theory that it indicates the purpose of Kurapatkin to evacuate the town is not generally accepted. Military officers there surmise that the commotion noted is in connection with a movement to check the Japanese flanking operations. In Russian official circles some evidence is given the rumor that Admiral Wiroh has left Port Arthur with his ships, the confusion resulting from the severe storm on Tuesday being regarded as having made a dash possible. The time-expired members of guards regiments in St. Petersburg and vicinity have been ordered to remain with the colors. There are indications that the Russian warships in the Baltic will soon be dispatched to the far east.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 6.—While the anti-panic calms to have no knowledge of the departure of the Port Arthur squadron, it is inferred from the way in which the report that such an event had transpired has been received that definite confirmation would not create surprise. In naval circles it is pointed out Wednesday morning conditions might have been favorable for a sortie. Heavy storms raged Tuesday and doubtless compelled the blockading vessels, and particularly the torpedo boats, to seek shelter, thus leaving the way clear for a dash to Vladivostok. Some naval officers, however, are inclined to think that heard at Chiefos may only have been directed at blockade runners.

Significant orders have been issued to keep time-expired members of all the guards regiments stationed in and around St. Petersburg with the colors till March, 1905.

Orders were issued to day to all seamen belonging to the battleship Orel and cruiser Oleg, enroute and bound to join their vessels at Cronstadt immediately. It is believed this precedes the sailing of those vessels for Remy, where Emperor Nicholas is going to review the whole Pacific squadron.

NO NEWS GIVEN OUT.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 6.—The war commission set out an unusually late hour to night, but adjourned without issuing additional news from the front. Expert opinion is divided as to whether a serious engagement is likely to occur at Mukden, but a dispatch from that city reporting unusual activity gives rise to much speculation. It is impossible to say whether the condition presages evacuation of Mukden, but in any case it is evident something of unusual interest is pending. Some even are bold enough to take it that Kurapatkin is preparing to assume the offensive, but in view of the fact that most reliable advice credit him with only about six divisions at Mukden this is a decidedly improbable. It is thought more likely the commotion had to do with one of the other of the Japanese flanking columns, which the Russian commander may have been preparing to check.

WAR REPORTS.

Tokio, Oct. 6.—The Port Arthur blockade fleet has captured a junk laden with provisions while endeavoring to enter the harbor. The statements of the crew indicate the existence of a fleet of eighty junks organized to run the blockade from the vicinity of Tsing Tau. Despite the vigilance of the blockading fleet many junks reach the Russian lines at a number of landing places on the lower end of the peninsula.

Mukden, Oct. 6.—The main forces of both armies remain quiet, but scouts are active. On Tuesday a Cossack detachment had a sharp brush with some Japanese dragons near the Yen Tai mines. The Japanese lost four killed and had two captured and then fled.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 6.—Reports received at the ministry of interior indicate the Jewish revolutionary band are displaying renewed activity in the dissemination of pamphlets, urging their co-religionists not to rely on promises of the government, asserting the remedy is revolution.

DEATHS.

Burlington, Iowa, Oct. 6.—Charles T. Barker, a veteran newspaper man and one time owner of the Burlington Gazette, is dead, aged 78.

A mail bag captured by the Boers in 1899 has just been recovered. It contained forty-seven registered letters, in which were about $350 in cash, a number of postal cards, a draft for $1,000, documents involving a sum of $25,000, checks, office papers and two wills.

Four world's records were made in the Transylvania to day, besides lowering the event record and making the fastest mile this year on any track. When Tiverton won the first heat in 2:35, he lowered the event record and made the fastest trotting record of any horse this year. Winning the second heat in 2:35, he again lowered these records and made a world's record for the fastest second heat in a race. Sweet Marie won the third heat in 2:35. This established a world's record for the fastest third heat ever trotted in a race, and her mark is the fourth in 2:35 and fifth in 2:35, thus establishing a world's record for the five fastest heats ever trotted in a race. The average time for each heat was 2:36 11-20. The first three heats averaged 2:35 1-2.

The previous record was 2:37 1-2, made by Prince of Orange in the race won by Ozanum in 1902.

ROBBED AND LOCKED IN VAULT.

Council Bluffs, Iowa, Oct. 6.—At the point of a revolver Miss Frances Flood, assistant cashier of the savings bank at Treynor, was this afternoon compelled to surrender $1,700 in cash to a robber, who then locked her in a vault and escaped. Customers coming into the bank half an hour later released the girl from the vault and an armed posse immediately started in pursuit of the robber. Posses from Council Bluffs are also in pursuit, but up to midnight he was not apprehended.

A CASE OF SUICIDE.

Chicago, Oct. 6.—Instead of being an assassin, as at first supposed, it was learned to day suicide was the cause of death of Minnie Harmoning, of Palatine, Ill., whose dead body was found in a barn. Her brother John confessed to day he discovered the corpse hanging from a rafter. He cut the body down and hid the rope, not wanting his parents to know the girl committed suicide.

Acting Postmaster General Wynne to day received the following from Berlin: "The Imperial German postal administration expresses to the postoffice department its heartfelt sympathy upon the loss it has suffered by the death of the highly honored Postmaster General Payne. Officials of this service now present there will represent the Imperial administration at the funeral services."

LA FOLLETTE'S PROCLAMATION.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 6.—Governor La Follette to day issued a proclamation announcing the death of Postmaster General Payne and directing flags half masted on public buildings the day of burial. The governor says:

"In the death of Henry C. Payne, the state of Wisconsin loses one of its most widely known and distinguished citizens. He was prominently identified for the greater part of his life with state and national politics. His commanding ability and unusual genius as an organizer won his success and a reputation both as a politician and a business man. His genial personality, generous nature and sympathetic qualities made him a delightful companion. His friendships were warm and lasting and he will be mourned by a far reaching circle of loving friends and associates."

"The death of Henry C. Payne, the state of Wisconsin loses one of its most widely known and distinguished citizens. He was prominently identified for the greater part of his life with state and national politics. His commanding ability and unusual genius as an organizer won his success and a reputation both as a politician and a business man. His genial personality, generous nature and sympathetic qualities made him a delightful companion. His friendships were warm and lasting and he will be mourned by a far reaching circle of loving friends and associates."

A FINE RECORD

Many persons in this city will remember with great pleasure Miss Maud Bittleston, a singer of no common ability, a pupil of Miss Mary Tanner of this city. The Los Angeles Examiner published a portrait of the young lady with the following complimentary notice:

"A bright career as a musician is predicted for Miss Maud Irene Bittleston, who has served for a year as soloist in All Saints' Episcopal church on Euclid avenue, Pasadena, and who has also sung operatic, oratorio and cantata parts. She has a voice of wide range and sweetness."

"Miss Bittleston is winning of personality, and the sympathetic quality and exquisite sweetness of her voice have won many encores for her in the east and west."

"An eager critic said of her not long ago:

"Seldom does one person possess the wonderful combination of vocal characteristics that are found in the case of this young woman. A rare sweetness is combined with wonderful power and perfect flexibility and control. In the upper notes she never faltered, and rendered them with an ease and grace which was astonishing. Though her physique would not be called robust, she showed a wonderful power in the selections that called for it, while the more tender themes were interpreted with dramatic perfection. She sang with ease in English, French, German and Italian."

"Her home is in California, where she expects to go in a few weeks. It is her intention to devote her life to music, alternately teaching and studying. The home of Miss Bittleston is in Los Angeles, but she is at present conducting a large choral class at Santa Monica."

THRONGS OF BUYERS CONTINUE.

Special Price Brings Many Patrons to the Hatch Drug Store.

The people of Jacksonville and vicinity appreciate the great advantage he has obtained for them, in getting the Dr. Howard Co. to allow the regular 50 cent size of Dr. Howard's specific, for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia, to be sold at 25 cents, and have bought hundreds of bottles.

Many orders have come by mail at this popular price, for it is very unusual to be able to buy sixty doses of a standard medicine for 25 cents by the bottle.

Every bottle of the specific sold by him has had his personal guarantee to refund the money if it was not satisfactory, but none has come back, showing the wonderful curative power of this remedy.

Unlike ordinary medicines for constipation and dyspepsia, the dose of Dr. Howard's specific is reduced after a few days use, and the cure is soon complete and lasting.

CITY COUNCIL.

REGULAR SESSION HELD THURSDAY NIGHT

Many Sidewalk Ordinance, Passed—Bills Approved and Routine Business Transacted.

The city council held a short session Thursday evening, and business was disposed of with despatch. The bill for the bridge at Nichols park was read, but as the amount was greater than the appropriation made by the council to the park commission, it was finally agreed to pay to the park commission the amount of $500, the sum voted by the council.

Many sidewalk ordinances were passed and the greater part of the session was spent in the transaction of the usual routine business.

THE PROCEEDINGS.

The council met in regular session with all present except Mayor Davis and Ald. Cobb and Johnson.

The city clerk nominated M. L. Hildreth for mayor pro tem.

Ald. Kennedy nominated Ald. Vaughn, who declined, and Ald. Hildreth was chosen by acclamation, taking his seat amid applause. He made a few brief remarks and the clerk proceeded to read the minutes of the preceding meeting.

Before the clerk had finished the reading of the minutes, Mayor John R. Davis entered and took the chair. The minutes, as read, were approved.

The minutes of the special and adjourned meetings were then read and approved.

A petition was read from property owners on South Clay avenue, asking for the appointment of James McFall as paving inspector.

Ald. Kennedy spoke in favor of granting the petition.

Ald. Goetze moved the petition be referred to the board of local improvements. Carried.

All properly approved bills were read and ordered paid.

Ald. Kennedy refused to sign certain bills as member of the public improvement committee, and also of the water committee, and resigned as member of both committees, and the mayor announced the acceptance of Ald. Kennedy's resignations.

Ald. Moore raised the question of paying for the bridge at Morgan lake. The amount was over the appropriation of $500 appropriated for park purposes.

Ald. Doolin was opposed to paying the bill until the same was O. K'd by the park commissioners.

Ald. Vaughn and Goetze thought the council should pay $500 for the bridge, but no more.

Ald. Kennedy had been out to the park and thought the bridge did not have the proper piers.

Ald. Ticknor, seconded by Ald. Goetze, moved the council pay to the park commission $500. Carried.

The board of public improvements recommended to the council that they had accepted the work on the Grove street, Park street and Westminster street pavements.

The report of the board of public improvements was accepted and the bill of the contractor was ordered paid.

Reports of city officers were read and approved.

Ald. Ticknor reported in favor of opening Mathers street. No action.

The clerk read the sidewalk ordinances on the following streets, which were passed: Chambers street, north side and east of the C & A railroad; west side of North Church street, north of Wabash railroad; west side of Doolin avenue; east side of Doolin avenue; north side of West North street; west side of North East street; west side of Brown street; west side of Kosciuszko street; east side of North East street.

Ald. Hildreth moved to adjourn. Carried.

CONDENSED STORIES.

A Brave Soldier Who Couldn't Stand
Cuban Cooking.

Admiral Dewey nodded toward a tall man with a military carriage.
"That gentleman," he said, "fought gallantly in Cuba against the Spaniards. But it is about his eating, not his fighting, that I am going to tell you."

"He was quartered in a certain Cuban village, and at mess he com-

"SUGARED! SUGARED!" HE EXCLAIMED, plained bitterly every day about the Cuban cooking.

"Sugar!" he would exclaim. "They sugar everything. I can't stand this constant sugar diet."

"Finally he said: 'I'll eat nothing but boiled eggs hereafter. They can't sugar them.'"

"But a young officer came in to mess at the next meal very early,
and, taking the salt out of the other's salt cruet, he filled it up with sugar."

"When the older man arrived he ordered, sure enough, boiled eggs.
He opened them with a gloomy complacency and sprinkled over them plenty of the doctored salt."

"At the first mouthful he turned purple."

"Sugared! Sugared!" he exclaimed and rushed from the table."

DEAD TO THE WORLD

(Original.)

I shall give no true names in this story. I shall call myself Alexis Olizoff, which is a confession that I am a Russian. Ten years ago I left Russia for America. I was twenty-two years of age. I had joined the nihilists, and the fact had been discovered by my father, who convinced me that I was in error and sent me to America, hoping that my youthful indiscretion might pass harmlessly by my entering a new field.

My first summer in the warmer climate I spent at the seashore. One afternoon I was lying on the shore on my back, my straw hat shading my eyes, looking out over the waves beating up against the rocks below. Far to the left I could see a white line of foam marking a succession of graceful curves.
My cheek was fanned by a steady sea breeze laden with that salt odor which has always been to me so delicious.
Hearing a footstep, I raised myself from my reclining position, and, seeing a young girl approach, I stood, hat in hand, waiting for her to pass me. Then suddenly I recognized her as the daughter of a gentleman living on an estate adjoining my father's in Russia.

"Alexis!"

"What brings you here?"

"To this particular spot? You. I saw your name on the hotel register and have been hunting for you ever since."

"But what brings you to America?"

"I fancied she was trying to hide some emotion as she replied: 'Oh, I read of the independence of the American women and the fields of labor open to them. I couldn't sit and twirl my fingers waiting for my father to find me a husband. I wish to make a career for myself.'"

"But, Lisa, do you expect to make a career for yourself at a summer resort?"

"No. I have just arrived and have been told that it is the dull season in the cities. I came here to pass the time before a busier season warrants my applying for work."

The meeting with Lisa was like a breath of air from home. She had long ago been a playmate of mine, and I had fancied that I was her favorite among all the boys. My father was supplying me with means, and Lisa seemed to have all she needed. She promptly left the hotel and took a room in a farmhouse near by.

This saved us from criticism, for we were constantly together, and she was without a chaperon. Thus spending our time, one day in a pleasure boat,
the next strolling through the country,
the next lying on the dunes watching the ever varying features of old ocean, it is not remarkable that my boyish fancy returned to me as a man's love.

Lisa was very different at different times. If I spoke to her about her plans for the future, her methods of procedure in making a career, she would say, "Plume enough for that when I return to the city." When we strolled in the country she was moody;
when we sat upon the shore she was lost in dreams. It was only when we were out on the ocean speeding under a twelve knot breeze that she seemed to throw off some unpleasant remembrances that haunted her and was herself. Once, when we were in great danger from a storm that came up suddenly, she showed an exhilaration of delight.

One evening I went for a stroll alone on the beach. Lisa and I during the afternoon had been there. She had started to run, and I had run beside her. Now I walked over the course we had taken. Seeing a letter on the sand, I picked it up. It was addressed to Nina Vassilitch. The Russian name attracted my attention. As the envelope was broken, I took out the letter mechanically and glanced at it as a whole. I was surprised to notice that there was no heading. One word stared me in the face—my own name!

Self preservation is the first law of nature. I read the letter. It informed Nina Vassilitch that during the previous spring I had been seen in Philadelphia.

What did it mean? The evidence pointed strongly to one conclusion, but it was an indefinite conclusion. I put the letter in my pocket and, going up on to the dunes, lay down to try to recover my composure. The moon was lighting up the beach, and presently I saw a figure coming a woman. She was walking over the course Lisa and I had taken during the afternoon. I lay hidden in the sage grass, and when she came nearer I saw Lisa. She was looking for the letter.

I arose and went to her. "Here is what you are looking for, Nina Vasa-litch," I said. "I suppose you have been sent by the nihilists to kill me."

I could see her written in the moonlight. "No," she said, "I have not been sent to kill you, but to order you to kill another."

In this sentence I read my death warrant. I staggered.

"Alexis," she said almost in a wail,
"I have not delivered the message because I could not thus strike you. Today I determined that I would do the work I am expected to order you to do."

"Why," I stammered—"why have you taken my burden?"

"Because I love you."

A week later a storm came up. A rowboat was driven ashore, bottom up, to one of the rowlocks of which were tied certain letters Lisa and I had been carrying in our pockets. The next morning the city papers contained an account of how we were supposed to have perished. At the same time an old man and an old woman in tatters left the seashore and journeyed westward.

—CLINTON N. RYDER.

Young women may avoid much sickness and pain, says Miss Alma Pratt, if they will only have faith in the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I feel it my duty to tell all young women how much Lydia E. Pinkham's wonderful Vegetable Compound has done for me. I was completely run down, unable to attend school, and did not care for any kind of society, but now I feel like a new person, and have gained seven pounds of flesh in three months."

"I recommend it to all young women who suffer from female weakness."—MISS ALMA PRATT, Holly, Mich.

FREE MEDICAL ADVICE TO YOUNG GIRLS.
All young girls at this period of life are earnestly invited to write Mrs. Pinkham for advice; she has guided in a motherly way hundreds of young women; her advice is freely and cheerfully given, and her address is Lynn, Mass.

Judging from the letters she is receiving from so many young girls Mrs.
Pinkham believes that our girls are often pushed altogether too near the limit of their endurance nowadays in our public schools and seminaries.
Nothing is allowed to interfere with studies, the girl must be pushed to the front and graduated with honor; often physical collapse follows, and it takes years to recover the lost vitality,—often it is never recovered.

A Young Chicago Girl Saved from Despair.
"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I wish to thank you for the help and benefit I have received through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills. When I was about seventeen years old I suddenly seemed to lose my usual good health and vitality. Father said I studied too hard, but the doctor thought different and prescribed tonics, which I took by the quart without relief. Reading one day in the paper of Mrs. Pinkham's great cures, and finding the symptoms described answered mine, I decided I would give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. I did not say a word to the doctor;
I bought it myself, and took it according to directions regularly for two months, and I found that I gradually improved, and that all pains left me, and I was my old self once more. — LILLIE E. SINCLAIR, 17 E. 22d St., Chicago Ill."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the one sure remedy to be relied upon at this important period in a young girl's life; with it she can go through with courage and safety the work she must accomplish, and fortify her physical well being so that her future life may be insured against sickness and suffering.

$5000 FORFEIT if we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness.

When you have a cough or cold don't ask what is good for it and get some medicine with little or no merit and perhaps dangerous. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar, the greatest throat and lung remedy; it cures coughs and colds quickly. Sold by J. A. Obermeyer, City Drug Store.

SOFTNESS OF SEALS KIN.

Is Revived by Human Hair Where Dandruff is Eradicated.

Seal skin is admired the world over for its softness and glossiness; and yet the human hair is equally as soft and glossy when healthy; and the radical cause of all hair trouble is dandruff, which is caused by a pestiferous parasite that saps the vitality of the hair at its root. Newbro's Hairdressing is the only preparation that is fatal to the dandruff germ. Without dandruff there is no falling hair, but a luxuriant growth of glossy, soft hair is certain. Scouring the scalp won't cure dandruff. Kill the dandruff germ. Thousands of women owe their beautiful suits of hair to Newbro's Hairdressing. Sold by leading druggists. Bad Stomachs AND Torpid Livers

RESPONSIBLE FOR NINETY-FIVE PER CENT. OF ALL DISEASES

"Seven Bars" Cures or No Pay

The cause of nearly every disease can be directly traced to clogged and inactive stomachs, livers or intestines. Biliousness, indigestion, gout, rheumatism, headaches, insomnia, kidney and bladder troubles, and all liver complaints, emanate from one of the digestive or drainage organs. These organs must be kept constantly in action to insure uninterrupted good health, and there is no remedy or corrective, so harmless and so certain as "Seven Bars."

There is no ailment originating from any of the organs of the digestive and drainage system, but what will readily succumb to the use of "Seven Bars"—a purely vegetable preparation, put up in a noted German physician's original formula. It is not a patent medicine.

If any one with stomach, liver or kidney troubles will call at our store and get a bottle of "Seven Bars," take as directed—and if all the benefit one should expect is not derived, no charge will be made. We are not taking chances in making this offer, for we know the character of the remedy and we are satisfied it will do all that is claimed for it.

RAILROAD NEWS NOTES

Wabash Wrecker Here Thursday—Items of Local Interest.

"The Runaways" came in over the Wabash Thursday morning on No. 3, and upon the arrival of that train it transpired that it had had a narrow escape from being wrecked. One of the wheels under the baggage car was broken, a piece about ten or twelve inches long having fallen out, probably somewhere between Orleans and this city. The wheel had evidently been cracked for a long time, as the cracked surface next to the flange was rusted and worn. The broken edges were hammered down by their contact with the rail, and the way in which the wheel was worn showed that it had been off the rail at times. At the junction the brake head caught on the rough corner of the wheel and was broken off. The car was Wabash baggage and Pacific Express No. 304. The wrecking crew came down from Springfield extra, and after replacing the damaged pair of wheels with a new pair, went back on No. 70. It was a lucky escape, as smaller things have wrecked many a train.

The C. & A. sold forty tickets to St. Louis Thursday afternoon.

W. A. Card, trainmaster, and E. G. Johnson, traveling engineer, went to Centralia on Burlington train No. 43 yesterday.

James Green, brakeman on the C. & St. L., bought two ponies of Woods & Watson at Chandlerville a few days ago.

The Mundy Carnival company will arrive Sunday evening via the C. P. & St. L. The special consists of nine train cars, all loaded to their full capacity.

"THE RUNAWAYS"

Arthur Dunn, the Inimitable, and Company of Capable Artists at the Grand—Piece Had Brilliant Setting—Large Audience

Jacksonville has had some good shows, but for many days there has been nothing offered here as a bid for public favor that would equal the elaborate production given at the Grand last night in the line of musical comedies. "The Runaways," as staged by Sam S. Schubert, is not only a stupendous scenic attraction, but through it all runs a fecundity of humor that is genuine and at times carries the audience into uncontrollable laughter. The whole play is built up around Arthur Dunn, who is a star of no small magnitude, and his remarkable work last evening won him many new laurels. Really the whole attraction was Mr. Dunn himself, for his appearance was always a signal for applause, and his every movement was carefully noted by the audience. He is a quaint diminutive figure, original in all his movements, and his splendid conception of the ridiculous was demonstrated to the entire satisfaction of the crowded house which greeted him.

"The Runaways" is not a musical comedy in all that is usually necessary in making up a tuneful program, but is more on the order of the extravaganza, the costumes, scenery and other accessories being of a most sumptuous character, while the real interest in the whole play centers in the lines spoken by the principals.

The play is in two acts and the first is a scene at the club house and Saratoga race track. "Runaways" is the name of a race horse and on the result of a race the story is built. The second scene is at Salad Glen, in the Island of Table d'Hote, and the opening of this scene presents a most gorgeous scenic view of nighttime, rich in coloring and realistic in all its arrangement, made more so by the mechanical effects introduced in the song of the "Firedy."

Supporting Dunn in the cast were Clarence Harvey, as "General Armour Hardback, U. S. A.," a unique character, a splendid impersonator, who played his part in a most acceptable manner. Charlie Cox, as "Diagnosis Fleecem," was Dunn's supporting partner and his tall and ungainly proportions placed him in striking contrast to Dunn's small build.

Miss Ermine Earle, a "Jokey Mary Darling," is a lady of marked cleverness and her ability was well suited to the parts she was given. Miss Blanche Wayne also had a leading part.

The large audience was most enthusiastic and many numbers were accorded encore after encore. The song, "A Kiss for Each Day in the Week," by Dunn and the six widows, was given many encores and although it was an attempt that might be easily overdone, yet this was accomplished to the apparent satisfaction of the audience.

Manager Chatterton was greatly pleased with the attendance last evening, and if the patrons were as pleased with the performance as Mr. Chatterton was with their presence the engagement of the "Runaways" was indeed a grand success.

ORGANIZED DENTAL SOCIETY

Representatives From Five Counties Met at the Dunlap House Thursday Evening—Enjoyed Banquet.

Under the auspices of the state Dental society, representatives of the organization from the counties of Cass, Pike, Brown, Scott and Morgan met at the Dunlap hotel Thursday evening and organized a county component society.

The representatives gathered about the banquet board at 7 o'clock and after enjoying a splendid menu transacted the business of the meeting. While the banquet was being served Mallory Bros. furnished a delightful program of music.

The menu was as follows:
Baltimore Selects
Shredded Cabbage
Celery
Olives
Mollet Red Snapper, Shrimp Sauce
Potatoes Hollandaise
Young Turkey Roasted, Cranberry Jelly
Jersey Sweets
French Peas
Combination Salad
Peace Ice Cream
Fancy Cake
Coffee

At the close of the banquet the dentists adjourned to the parlors of the hotel and listened to a finely rounded program given by Mallory Bros. The meeting was then called to order by Dr. C. B. Sawyer, the chairman of the reorganization committee. Dr. L. A. Reed was appointed secretary pro tem. Dr. Sawyer then stated the object of the meeting; namely, to form a county component society of the Illinois state Dental society.

On motion of Dr. Blair, of Waverly; it was unanimously decided to form such a society, and on motion of Dr. Young it was voted to call it the Morgan county Dental society. The following officers were then elected:

President—Dr. C. B. Sawyer, of Jacksonville.
Vice president—Dr. McKinney, of Barry.
Secretary—Dr. Young, of Jacksonville.
Treasurer—Dr. Smith, of Cass county.
Librarian—Dr. C. B. Powell, of Jacksonville.

By unanimous vote the constitution and by-laws, as published by the Illinois state Dental society, were adopted and the following committees elected by acclamation:

Committee on censors—Dr. Fulton, of Virginia; Dr. Hurdle, of Brown county; Dr. Pennock, of Pike county.
Committee on program—Dr. Blair, Dr. Duncan, Dr. Kopperl.
Committee on membership—Dr. Hopper, Dr. McKinney, Dr. Widenham.

A number of details were then attended to and the following dentists were enrolled as charter members of the Morgan county Dental society:

Dr. Sawyer, McKinney, Young, Smith, Powell, Blair, Widenham, Hopper, Pennock, Hurdle, Duncan, Fulton, Sperry, Kopperl, Reed, Kibbler, Herring, Rees, Conroy, McDonald, Hemming, Buckthorpe, Schermmerhorn, Noyes, Carey and Wilcox.

A number of other dentists had been invited and will probably be added later when heard from.

At the close of routine business, Dr. Blair spoke most earnestly and effectively upon the topic of "Fellowship." Dr. Reed then spoke on "Tolerance," after which the meeting adjourned to meet in Jacksonville the second Thursday in January, 1905.

The society starts out with an enthusiasm and an earnestness of purpose that augurs well for a brilliant future. It numbers in its ranks some able dentists and the organization is an advance move for the benefit of the dentist profession throughout the state.

Several different shapes or types of steel railroad ties have been made at the Carnegie Steel works, Pittsburg, at the suggestion of railway officials, in view of the constantly increasing expense of wooden ties. Already the needs of the railroads have used up nearly all available supplies of lumber, and some companies have to send to Florida and other far away points for their material. If a steel tie can be evolved from the experiments at Pittsburg, large orders are predicted.

O. H. Sidener and wife have returned from a visit to the fair.

DYING FOR THE MIKADO.

Letter From a Japanese Mother Found on Her Son's Body.

The spirit animating the Japanese troops is shown by the translation of a letter written by a Japanese mother to her son which has reached the St. Petersburg war office.

The letter was found on the body of the woman's son. It adjured him to fight nobly for the mikado and his country and informed him that his capture would be considered an everlasting disgrace upon the family ancestors, but that if he died on the battlefield it would be an honor which the family would celebrate for a week.

DEDICATE MONUMENT

Honor Paid to the Veterans of Civil War at Whitehall—Addresses by Judge Thompson and Col. A. C. Mathews.

Exercises in honor of the dedication of the Whitehall soldiers' and sailors' monument were held in Whitehall Thursday afternoon, where a large concourse of citizens and visitors from neighboring cities were present. It was a patriotic gathering and the occasion proved one that will live in the memory of all as a red letter day in the history of Whitehall and Greene county.

Judge Owen P. Thompson was the principal speaker in the morning and delivered a strong and stirring address that was highly appreciated. In the afternoon, after the presentation of the monument to the citizens by W. M. Potts, president of the Whitehall Soldiers' association, Col. A. C. Mathews, of Pittsfield, was introduced and delivered an able address filled with patriotic utterances, holding his audience spellbound for over an hour.

The following gives a brief history of the monument that has resulted in the beautiful monument, which is the pride of the people of Whitehall.

"The Whitehall Monument association was organized and incorporated under the laws of the state of Illinois, May, 10, 1896.

"The first board of directors was W. M. Potts, T. A. Smith, G. S. Vossler, W. C. Baker, Edward North and Mark Meyerstein.

"The beautiful monument dedicated to the memory of the soldiers and sailors of the republic, was completed Saturday, July 2, 1904, and stands in commanding view to the left of the entrance to the Whitehall cemetery.

"The monument has a total height of twenty-five feet, and is made of the best Barre granite. The bottom base is eight feet square and one foot eight inches thick, rock and marginated; base, six feet two inches square and one and a half feet thick, hammered on four sides; die, five feet two inches square and four feet ten inches high, hammered on four sides, with carved raised inscription: 'In Memory of Our Soldiers and Sailors.'

Every married person visiting our store up to the time of the demonstration will be given a ticket entitling them to one chance to win this wonderful heater, which is valued at $25. Drawing takes place directly after the demonstration, and holder of winning ticket must be present. The heater is now on exhibition in our window.
